WELCOME!

Celebrities get to do something most of us can't: try as many beauty products as they want regardless of how much they usually cost.

MARY KATE & ASHLEY OLSEN TALK FAVORITE SKINCARE PRODUCTS

2 FEBRUARI, 2014

I usually try to write individual posts for Mary Kate and Ashley Olsen but they have so much in common that it's just smarter to kill two (angry) birds ☺ with one stone! Mary Kate and Ashley are coming out with a new line of fragrances for their Elizabeth and James line and are out doing interviews promoting their new products. Luckily for me, most interviewers sneak in a question or two about beauty products! Mary Kate divulged that she loves Rodin face oil [$150, oliolusso-shop.com], described as a "perfect potion made from a blend of 11 essential oils derived from botanicals, perfect for anyone seeking hydrated skin and a luminous complexion", and Biologique Recherche [prices vary from $26 to $499, eliteskincare.com]; a French biological skincare line with over 30 years experience in developing "the most powerful and effective skincare products in the beauty industry". ☺ Ashley is a fan of Biologique Recherche too. Both agree on the ultimate lip product as well: Brave Soldier Lip Defender [$9, bravesoldier.com].
