Gucci Bamboo ($92, macys.com, available in July): I'll wear this elegant, woody floral scent—and a pair of crisp white palazzo pants—to rooftop cocktails at the Gramercy Park Hotel.

Sulwhasoo Perfecting Cushion SPF 50 ($60, neimanmarcus.com): This weightless foundation boasts major SPF.

Biologique Recherche Reparation UV ($119, biologique-recherche.com): When an al fresco lunch runs long, this lotion does damage control.

Tom Ford Eye and Cheek Compact in Pink Glow ($105, tomford.com): With its lovely spectrum of nudes, muted corals, and gold shimmer, this is the only summer compact I need.

Living Proof No Frizz Humidity Shield ($22, livingproof.com): This spritz keeps my hair sleek and flyaway-free straight through August.
