In each issue of Fast Company, we hear from executives from interesting, exciting businesses about the tech, books, apps, and more they're loving lately. Here are our May issue picks.

1. LEFF AMSTERDAM TUBE AUDIO

$119, leffamsterdam.com

"This portable speaker sounds great, but what won me over is its functional beauty. It's a small, Bluetooth-enabled copper cylinder that gets extra credit for announcing, 'Your device is connected,' in a heavy Dutch accent. Cracks me up every time." —Bruce Vaughn, CEO, Dreamscape Immersive

10. BIOLOGIQUE RECHERCHE P50W 1970

$95 for 8.5 oz, biologique-recherche.com

“This lotion smells like the sidewalk under a pigeon-populated bridge after a rainstorm. It burns and stinks, but it also makes my skin clear and bright.” —Sarah Sanneh, co-owner, Pies ‘n’ Thighs
