In town for the C.F.D.A. Awards from Dallas, which is where Joanna Czech is based, there's rarely any downtime for this highly regarded aesthetician. "But I love to travel, and I truly love what I do! I am very lucky that way . . ." says Czech. Lucky indeed to be beautifying mega-influencers like Kim Kardashian, who was awarded the influencer award at the C.F.D.A.s on Monday night.

Jet-setting between Los Angeles, New York, and Dallas, Czech has created the Bermuda Triangle of beauty. Once you enter her zone of facials and treatments, there's no getting out. After one session, many become the Czech List loyalists. It's not just the facials she does with her magical moves on the face. She's been known to test out many treatment machines and applications before giving them her stamp of approval.

One look at her Instagram feed proves the machines she uses are elaborate. From Ultrasound to Microcurrents to Radiofrequency as well as Cryotherapy and LED with Negative Ionization. Plus, Diamond Exfoliation and Celluma LED Lights for hands and arms, you might think you're getting a facial at NASA! But it's not just about the applications, but also the line of skin-care arsenals that's made to her list. She customizes various potions to meet one's skin-condition needs. Her current favorite go-to brands are Biologique Recherche, Dr. Barbara Sturm, Medik8, Augustinus Bader, Meder, 111Skin, Vintner's Daughter, and Ignae Skincare.

Come this summer, you may be seeing her back up north more often. Since opening her pied-a-terre in Midtown Manhattan in time for the Met Gala a month ago, her visitors have included paparazzi-hounded red carpet beauties and designers like Kim Kardashian, Bella Hadid, Busy Phillips, Eva Chen, and Phillip Lim as well as Irene Neuwirth and Laura Kim of Monse.

Next stop? Catch her if you can in Sag Harbor this August in the Hamptons. It's all about getting on her Czech List.
