Still planning a late-summer trip? I've pulled together 10 special suggestions, from a short excursion to a full-on trip; from independent travel to all-inclusive tours, cruises to spas to villas:

The Champagne Region's First-Ever Luxury Wellness Destination

The quaint village of Epernay in France welcomes it's first-ever luxury and wellness retreat, offering a 16,000 square-foot spa in concert with Biologique Recherche, and gastronomic experiences by two-star Michelin chef Jean-Denis Rieubland. Royal Champagne Hotel & Spa, is a bespoke hideaway overlooking the vineyards that stripe the hills of Epernay; located just 45 minutes outside of Paris, it's a respite from the summer crowds in Paris.
