viva la face

Biologique Recherche invites brand aficionados to experience Parisian pleasure at its new flagship spa, Ambassade de la Beaute on the Avenue des Champs-Élysées. This three-level haven includes a couples' room; a VIP room for facial and body treatments; three facial treatment rooms; two body treatment rooms; one room for manicures, pedicures, and hair removal; and a salon. Designed by Frédéric Gaunet, the spa features silk curtains and handmade engraved gold-leaf mirrors, rich colors, and comfy furnishings that make guests feel right at home as they enjoy skincare services performed using Biologique Recherche products. It's the perfect place for spa-goers to bid adieu to fine lines and wrinkles and bonjour to beautiful skin.—J.K.

Natural light, warm colors, and elegant accents add to the appeal of Ambassade de la Beaute.
