For living and hydrating above your means: Biologique Recherche Patches Defatigants

These masks offer two superlatives—largest surface area and richest formula. The lobster claw shape covers above and under your eye, and if you use these at night, you'll still feel the spoils of a deeply moisturized eye skin by morning and well into the next day. Caffeine, a vasoconstrictor, de-puffs, and hyaluronic acid keeps the formula potent but lightweight. Worth noting—these are pricey but exceptional. I suggest splitting a three pack with two friends or, as a social experiment, two other people in the comment section.
