

The Stuff of Radiant-Skin Dreams

Biologique Recherche brings its Lotion P50 to The Standard Spa—skincare groupies rejoice.

Headquartered on the Champs-Élysées and sold at only the most exclusive spas and resorts, Biologique Recherche is one of those “whispered about” brands with a cult following (think Twihards for skincare). Beauty junkies and editors alike can’t get enough of the line’s Lotion P50 ($55, 5.1 fl. oz.; $87, 8.5 fl. oz.). This balancing and exfoliating lotion is a cure-all for the sensitive- and oily-skin crowd. Not only does P50 hydrate, tone and reduce oil secretion—thereby warding off blemishes—it also contains a vitamin-rich exfoliant that balances and lightens the skin. A quick poll of makeupalley.com (a sort of Yelp for beauty) reveals that P50 is also proven to reduce pores. Put simply, P50 will get your skin right. The Standard Spa, 40 Island Ave., 305-673-1717
