Biologique Recherche Gommage P50 Corps

It's never too late to get the perfect skin you've always wanted. Biologique Recherche, known for skin care products with astounding effectiveness based on a clinical approach to beauty, now has NEW at-home body care products that can give you flawless skin in just three steps. The Gommage P50 Corps, designed to prepare, purify and detoxify the epidermis to restore its natural regenerating properties, is the first step to achieving all over beautiful skin. Stay tuned to find out what's next!

Gommage P50 Corps is a unique gel that enhances the natural exfoliation process. Providing both mechanical and enzyme exfoliation to remove dead cells and impurities, it is ideal for use in slimming treatments, post-summer, and on rough areas of the skin such as the heels, knees, and elbows. The combination of exfoliating and stimulating agents such as silk extract and essential oil of cypress stimulates the epidermal functions by optimizing cellular renewal, unifies the complexion, and enhances the effects of products applied after it.
